COLLECTION SUMMARY SHEET

COLLECTION: STATE DEPARTMENT NUREMBURG TRIAL AND PEARL HARBOR DOCUMENTS
ACCESSION NUMBER: (450) 87
DONOR: Department of State - Historical Office
DATE OF GIFT: March 1971
SIZE: 2.5cu.ft.
INCLUSIVE DATES: 1932-1946.

BIOGRAPHICAL AND SUBJECT SUMMARY:

The records in this collection were gathered together by the State Department to prepare for two separate investigations conducted following World War II: The Nuremburg Trials and the Pearl Harbor Attack Inquiry.

Dr. Forrest C. Pogue later used these documents for research on his biography of George C. Marshall. They were then deposited at the Foundation.

PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION AND ARRANGEMENT:

There are two series: Nuremburg Trial records and Pearl Harbor records. The Nuremburg Trial documents are arranged topically according to the State department decimal system. Records in this series include photostatic copies of telegrams and consular reports prepared for the Secretary of State between 1932 and 1941. Also to be found are copies of correspondence between President Franklin D. Roosevelt and his advisors.

The Pearl Harbor papers are arranged chronologically by date of record. Found in this series are copies of decoded Japanese telegrams, memoranda sent to Chief of Staff, telegrams sent by American consular service and Provenance. The Department of State-Historical Office donated these documents to the Marshall Library in March 1971. All of these records are copies.

The records in this collection were gathered by the State Department in preparation for two separate investigations following World War II: The Nuremburg Trials and the Pearl Harbor Attack Inquiry. These documents were given to the Marshall Library to aid Dr. Forrest C. Pogue in his research for his biography of General Marshall.

About 5 cubic feet of files were received from the State Department. In rough sorting and weeding, about 2 cubic feet of duplicate materials were extracted and transferred to the Marshall Papers Editing Project for use in their research.
