

ANNE SCARBOROUGH PHILBIN COLLECTION

ACCESSION NUMBER 238

GEORGE C. MARSHALL RESEARCH FOUNDATION

COLLECTION SUMMARY SHEET

COLLECTION: Anne Scarborough Philbin Collection

ACCESSION NUMBER: 238

INCLUSIVE DATES: 1941-1999, n.d.

DONOR: BG Tobias R. Philbin

RESTRICTIONS: None

DATE OF GIFT: 2001

LOCATIONS:

SIZE: 2 Boxes

COLLECTION REGISTER AVAILABLE: Yes

BIOGRAPHICAL/HISTORICAL FEATURES: Anne Scarborough Philbin was a journalist for the Baltimore News-Post during the Second World War. In addition to covering domestic news stories from war-time Baltimore, she also reported on the Women's Army Corps and military campaigns in the European Theater of Operations, particularly in the Saar Campaign of 1944.

SUBJECTS: The collection contains numerous articles written by Philbin, and photographs of World War II events, as well as personal effects and journalistic materials from the Cold War. The collection also includes a number of letters recounting the service of General Tobias R. Philbin in the 95th Division.

FORMS OF MATERIAL: The Collection is comprised of one large flat box containing a scrapbook of photographs and newspaper clippings, loose scrapbook pages, newspaper clippings, and photocopies of newspaper clippings; plus a magazine, Berliner Illustrirte. In a smaller box are photographs, letters, and booklets.

ARRANGEMENT:

Box 1: (Over-sized), Scrapbook of Photographs and Newspaper Clippings, loose photographs, newspaper clippings, and photocopies of newspaper clippings

Box 2: Folder 1 - Photographs

Folder 2 - Letters

Folder 3 - Article-Speech

Folder 4 - Photocopies of photographs

Folder 5 - Undelivered Christmas Card

Folder 6 - Booklets

The Anne Scarborough Philbin Collection
Gift of Brigadier General Tobias R. Philbin (USA, Ret.)
Accession Number 238

Container List

Box/Folder	Description
1 (Oversized)	Newspaper Clippings, 1943-1945, [n.d.] “Women Writers WAACS For A Week,” by Anne Scarborough, The Baltimore American , June 27, 1943 “WAAC Recruits Find Strange New World,” by Anne Scarborough, The Baltimore News-Post , June 28, 1943 “Navy’s WAVE ‘Boots’ Are Given Training in Ideals of Service,” by Anne Scarborough, Baltimore News-Post , September 9, 1943 “Yanks Stop Nazi Tank Attack on Bridgehead” and “Will to Live Kept Prisoners Alive,” Baltimore News-Post , March 10, 1945 “A Christmas Tale of Many Americans,” by Anne Scarborough, n.d. “Marylanders Take Big Part In Bold River Crossing Feat” by Lee McCardell, n.d. Scrapbook, Newspaper Clippings and Photographs, Third Army Maneuvers, Metz, Saar Campaign, Etc., with mention of Colonel Tobias R. Philbin, n.d.
1	Loose Pages from Scrapbook, Newspaper Clippings
2	Photocopies of Loose Pages from Scrapbook
3	Magazine, Special Issue, Berliner Illustrirte , “Berlin the hub of Germany,” with photograph of John F. Kennedy on the cover, n.d. [c.1961]
4	Photocopies of Newspaper Clippings, 1943-1945, n.d.
2	1 Photographs, (3 Envelopes), 1943, n.d. Envelope 1 - 17 8 x 10 photographs from the “WAAC For A Week” Series Envelope 2 - 1 8 x 10 photograph of Major General Harry L. Twaddle, Commanding Officer, 95th Division, with two Army privates Envelope 3 - 18 3 x 5 photogrpahs of U.S. military armor and artillery from World War II

Box/Folder	Description
2	2
	Letters, 1998-1999
	Jerry Gibbons to General Tobias R. Philbin, March 15, 1998, recalling World War II memories at Metz
	Jerry Gibbons to General Tobias R. Philbin, August 25, 1999, sharing a World War II letter dated February 9, 1945, from Belgium
	Jerry Gibbons to General Tobias R. Philbin, September 3, 1999, recalling World War II memories
	3
	Article-Speech, "Fortnightly Paper 12/3/99" by Lewis Tyree, Jr., "COURAGE or Duty was Heavier Than a Mountain or Speaking the Unspeakable," including a "Composite" of information to Members of the US Armed Forces (ground) located in the Mariannas, Okinawa or the Philippines on VJ Day, and whose units were preparing for the invasion of Japan; and a "First Responder" article by Brigadier General Tobias R. Philbin, Jr., on "Courage," with comments on the difference between the war in the Pacific and the war in Europe during World War II
	4
	Photocopies (17) of photographs from "WAAC For A Week"
	5
	Christmas Card, December 22, 1942, returned, undelivered, to Lt. Howard A. Kelly, III, from Anne Scarborough, with printed inscription on the front of the envelope, "Killed in Action."
	6
	Booklet (Illustrated) for Gala Dinner and Passenger List for the SS United States , September 1969